

6516209368.txt

Satellite Radio is providing a reasonable alternative to local radio. They offer a variety of programming not heard on commercial radio and now can offer local traffic and weather. It is not the god-given right of traditional broadcast stations to be the exclusive providers of local information. The marketplace will determine which is the better form of media given all considerations. Please reject NAB's petition 04-160.